

War-Related Classes Approved by Faculty Council

Biology 61: Clinical Pathology

Chemistry 71: Industrial Chemistry

Chemistry 73 and 74: Chemistry of Explosives I and II

Chemistry 75: Chemistry of Warfare Materials

Design 32.1 and 32.2: Mechanical Drawing for Students of Engineering

Economics 16: Advanced Economics Analysis

Economics: 20.1: Foreign Trade

Economics 21.3: Personnel Management

Economics 41.3: Resources and Economic Problems of Latin America

Economics 46: Economics of Defense and War

Geology 7: Military Topography

Geology 23: Geography of South America

German 03: Second Year 1 (Wartime Needs)

History 57: Military History

Home Economics 35: Home Nursing

Home Economics 51: Quantity Cooking

Home Economics 55: Institutional Management

Hygiene (men): 5.1 to 5.3 Physical Fitness I-III for juniors and seniors

Japanese 01, 02: Beginner's Course

Japanese 05: First Year

Mathematics 06: Elementary Cryptography and Cryptanalysis

Mathematics 07 and 08: Elementary Mathematical Statistics I and II

Mathematics 35: Ballistics

Mathematics 36: Theoretical Aerodynamics

Physics 16: Aerodynamics

Physics 35.5: Problems of Astronomy and Navigation

Physics 50.1: Fundamentals of Radio

Physics 50.5: Introduction to Meteorology

Physics 50.6: Introduction to Navigation

Political Science 11.1: Political Issues of the War

Political Science 36: Public Personnel Administration

Political Science 45: International Organization

Psychology 50: Statistics in Psychology

Psychology 54.5. Psychological Factors in Total War (check) 1942

Russian 05: First Year

Sociology and Anthropology 41: Population in War and Reconstruction (previously Population)

Spanish 56: Culture and Civilization of Hispano-America

Spanish 57 and 58: Hispano-American Literature I and II

Sources used: Annual Reports of the President (1940-1947) and Minutes of the Brooklyn College Faculty Council (1940-1945).